

Send form to Andy Bianchi, 9 Regent St., Dunstable, Beds., LU6 1LP 01582 615708

Please enclose cheque payable to HRFC and a pre-paid envelope. You will see there is no space here for your address. No envelope means no tickets!

If you wish your application to be acknowledged and be included on a list for additional tickets and/or information send an e-mail to gandy.bianchi@ntlworld.com with '2017 International tickets' in the subject line.

Alternatively write your email clearly below

Car Parking

RFU car park ticket rules have changed this year.

If you wish to have a car park ticket, please email me stating which match you would like it for. If you are successful in being allocated a ticket for that game it may be possible to get you a car park ticket too.

By submitting an application you declare that you have read the below and agree to abide by HRFC's international ticket procedure and the process of allocating tickets.

Conditions

Only fully-paid up members of HRFC can apply for tickets. All applicants' names will be checked against the current member list on the website. If your name does not appear, you will not be eligible for tickets and will receive a refund (minus admin fee) late October.

All tickets are subject to RFU rules. These are available at <http://www.rfu.com/tickets/termsandconditions> and are printed on the tickets themselves.

If you are allocated tickets but discover you are unable to go to the match for whatever reason, you should contact Andy Bianchi, who will then reallocate them to another club member. Under no circumstances should tickets be sold for profit or put for sale on ticketing websites. Any member who attempts to do this will be expelled from the club.

Club members are expected to engage with others in adjacent seats and report back if you have any suspicions regarding anyone holding Harpenden tickets.

Process

Complete the form and submit before the deadline of 22nd June. Don't expect to get any tickets if you miss it.

Return form, cheque for the amount of all tickets you wish to buy (plus £5 admin fee), together with SAE to Andy Bianchi.

All cheques will be cashed, irrespective of whether you ultimately receive some, all or no tickets.

Tickets will be allocated about 3-4 weeks before the matches themselves.

Tickets and/or refund will be sent on as soon as possible after we receive them from the RFU.

How do you decide who gets tickets?

We want as many people as possible to enjoy the chance of going to watch England at Twickenham.

You can apply for as many tickets as you want (and can afford!) but we observe the following rules:

Tickets are awarded in pairs unless you specifically ask for a single ticket

If all other members interested in a particular match have got a pair of tickets you may be awarded additional pairs of tickets for that game.

The quicker you apply, the better chance you have of getting tickets. Forms received first will go to the top of the pile.

The club reserves the right to allocate a number of tickets to specific members at its own discretion. Individuals allocated tickets in such a manner will pay full price for such tickets.

Whilst every effort is made to allocate tickets at the requested price, occasionally it may be necessary to offer seats at a different price. It will be assumed that all those completing this form will be prepared to accept tickets at a higher or lower value if necessary.

Unsuccessful applicants from previous years will be given priority.
